Local 30 Ratification Meetings

We are pleased to announce that contract re-opener negotiations were successfully completed on September 13, 2008.

Local 30 will be hosting ratification meetings for members at various scheduled times so employees may be able to attend before or after their workday. These meetings, held throughout San Diego County, are made available for the members to review and discuss the agreement made nationally. After the review, the members will vote on the agreement via a ratification process.

The ratification meetings, for Local 30 union members only, are scheduled as follows:
